

March 1, 2019

Dear Colleague:

You are invited to the Principal Flute Audition of the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra. This is a permanent, tenure track position. The audition will take place in New Orleans on Friday, May 17th, 2019. The exact audition site will be announced via email.

Auditions will begin at 10 am. We may stagger times of arrival at the audition site depending upon the number of candidates. Specific time of arrival will be sent to you shortly after the application deadline. Your personal audition time will be assigned as you arrive on Friday, May 17, 2019. There are a limited number of available warm-up rooms at the audition site; you will be provided an individual warm-up room for approximately 15 minutes prior to your audition time.

The LPO is a full-time orchestra with a thirty-six week season that includes classics, pops, opera, and education concerts, along with an assortment of other types of concerts. For the Principal Flute position, the salary is $28,594 for the 2018-19 season, with a generous benefits package which includes fully paid major medical group insurance, paid instrument insurance, life insurance, disability insurance, and contributions to the AFM union pension plan.

Employment of the successful candidate will begin in September 2019.

In order for us to more accurately plan our audition schedule, it is necessary for us to require a refundable $50.00 audition reservation deposit. Your check will be returned to you when you arrive at the audition or will be returned to you if you cancel two weeks or earlier before the date of your audition. To apply, please send one-page resume and the check to:
