

LPO's Happy Hour Series is curated by the musicians and will feature different chamber ensembles and unique programming in each event. No two performances will be alike!

WELCOME TO ZONY MASH

Adios Nonino	Astor Piazzolla arr. J. Bullach
Casbah of Tetouan	Kerry Turner
Danzon No. 2	Arturo Marquez, arr. J. Bullach
Concerto Aranjeuz	Joaquin Rodriguez, arr. M. Trotter
Maritza	TOO MANY ZOOZ, arr. J. Bullach
St. James Infirmary	trad. arr. Zack Smith, transcr. J. Bullach
Summertime	Gershwin, arr. Chris O'Brien
Fly Me to the Moon	Bart Howard, arr. J. Bullach
L.O.V.E.	Bert Kaempfert, arr. J. Bullach
Way Down Yonder	Henry Creamer and Turner Layton, arr. J. Gale and B. Doughty
Hallelujah	Leonard Cohen, arr. Mark Drehmann
Somewhere Over the Rainbow	Arr. Russ Robinson, transcr. Paul Basler
That's a Plenty	Pollack, arr. J. Bullach
Tico-tico	Zequinha Abreu, arr. Roger Harvey

TONIGHT'S MUSICIANS

Josiah Bullach, horn	Michael Metz, percussion	Mollie Pate, horn
Max Paulus, horn	Aaron Smith, percussion	Joey Troia, horn
Kevin Winter, horn

UPCOMING EVENTS

Halloween Spooktacular

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29 • 11:00 AM

Roussel Hall, Loyola University

With music by Nathaniel Stookey and words by Lemony Snicket, The Composer Is Dead introduces instruments of the orchestra through a whimsical, whodunit mystery. Bring the entire family for this wholesome and fun concert experience. Don't forget your costumes!

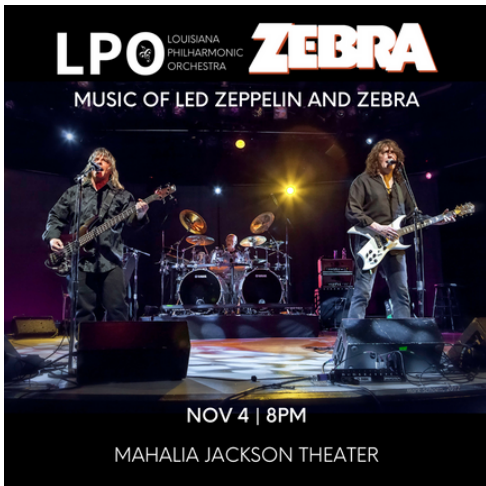

Music at the Museum

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2 • 6:00 PM

New Orleans Jazz Market

Featuring a program curated by composer and LPO Creative Partner, Courtney Bryan, our Music at the Museum Series this season highlights works and composers with roots in Louisiana.

Led Zeppelin & Zebra

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4 • 8:00 PM

Mahalia Jackson Theater

Bridging the gulf between rock n' roll and classical music, Zebra & the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra will perform the Music of Led Zeppelin and Zebra at Mahalia Jackson Theater.

Follow us on social media

