

Position Description

POSITION:	Stagehand
REPORTS TO:	Operations Manager and/or Lead Stagehand
POSITION TYPE:	Hourly Employee
HOURS:	Variable. Evening and weekend work required.
COMPENSATION:	$18.00 per hour

Position Summary: Stagehand assists with executing stage production elements for all LPO concerts, rehearsals, and events.

Primary Accountabilities:

- Pack and transport instruments and equipment to and from various venues in a safe and timely manner.
- Set stages and performance areas to specifications which meet the highest level of orchestral and theatrical production values.
- Respond to the needs of orchestra members, venue personnel, and symphony staff in a polite and timely manner.
- Perform other functions as assigned by the Operations Manager, Lead Stagehand, and other departments as needed.

Position Requirements:

- Ability to routinely lift and/or carry up to 30 pounds from ground to overhead.
- Ability to apply troubleshooting and problem solving skills as issues arise.
- Ability to promote a positive and passionate work atmosphere by behaving and communicating with internal and external contacts in a manner using considerable professionalism, tact and enthusiasm. Ability to interact with others in a manner that inspires trust and confidence.
- Outstanding oral communications skills.
- Flexible and resilient – comfortable embracing change.
- Unwavering commitment to artistic excellence.

If interested, please contact Jack Clark, Operations Manager, at jack.clark@lpomusic.com.